NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

Notice Describes How Health Information About You May Be Used And Disclosed And How You Can Get Access To This Information. Please Review Carefully.

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of protected health information (PHI), to provide individuals with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to protected health information, and to notify affected individuals following a breach of unsecured protected health information. We must follow the privacy practices that are described in that Notice while it is in effect. The Notice took effect 10/01/2013 and will remain in effect until we replace it.

We reserve the right to change our privacy practices and the terms of this Notice at any time, provided such changes are permitted by applicable law and to make new Notice provisions effective for all protected health information that we maintain. When we make a significant change in our privacy accounts, we will change this Notice and post the new Notice clearly and prominently at our practice location and we will provide copies of the new Notice upon request.

You may request a copy of the Notice at any time. For more information about our privacy practice or for additional copies of this Notice, please contact us using the information listed at the end of this Notice.

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

We may use and disclose your PHI for different purposes, including treatment, payment and health care operations. For each of these categories we have provided a description and an example. Some information such as HIV-related information, generic information alcohol and/or substance abuse records and mental health records may be entitled to special confidentiality protections under applicable state or federal law. We will abide by these special protections as they pertain to applicable cases involving these types of records.

Treatment: We may use and disclose your PHI for your treatment. For example, we may disclose your health information to a specialist providing treatment to you.

Payment: We may use and disclose your PHI to obtain reimbursement for the treatment and services you receive from us or another entity involved with your care. Payment activities include billing, collections, claims management and determinations of eligibility and coverage to obtain payment from you, an insurance company or another third party. For example, we may send claims to your dental health plan containing certain health information.

Healthcare Operations: We may use and disclose your PHI in connection with our healthcare operations. For example, healthcare operations include quality assessment and improvement activities, conducting training programs and licensing activities.

Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment For Your Care: We may use and disclose your PHI to your family and/or friends or any other individual identified by you when they are involved in your care or in payment for your care. Additionally, we may disclose information about you to a patient representative. If a person has the authority by law to make healthcare decisions for you, we will treat that patient representative the same way we would treat you in regard to your health information.

Disaster Relief: We may use or disclose your PHI to assist in disaster relief efforts.

Required By Law: We may use or disclose your PHI when we are required to do so by law.

Public Health Activities: We may disclose your PHI for public health activities, including disclosures to:

- o Prevent or control disease, injury or disability
- o Report child abuse or neglect
- o Report reactions to medications or problems with products/devices
- o Notify a person of a recall, repair or replacement of products/devices
- o Notify a person who may have been exposed to a disease or condition
- o Notify the appropriate government authority if we believe a patient has been the victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence

National Security: We may disclose to military authorities the PHI of Armed Force personnel under certain circumstances. We may disclose to authorized federal officials health information required for lawful intelligence, counterintelligence and other national security activities. We may disclose to correctional institution or law enforcement official(s) having lawful custody over the protected health information of an inmate or patient.

Security of HHS: We will disclose your PHI to the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services when required to investigate or determine compliance with HIPAA.

Worker's Compensation: We may disclose your PHI to the extent authorized by, and to the extent necessary, to comply with laws relating to worker's compensation or other similar programs established by law.

Law Enforcement: We may disclose your PHI for law enforcement purposes as permitted by HIPAA, as required by law or in response to a subpoena or court order.

Health and Oversight Laws: We may disclose your PHI to an oversight agency for activities authorized by law. These oversight activities include audits, investigations, inspections and credentialing, as necessary for licensure and for the government to monitor the health care system, government programs and compliance with civil rights laws.

Judicial and Administrative Proceedings: If you are involved in a lawsuit or dispute, we may disclose your PHI in response to a court or administrative order. We may also disclose health information about you in response to a subpoena, discovery request or other lawful process instituted by someone else involved in the dispute, but only if efforts have been made, either by the requesting party or us, to tell you about the request or to obtain an order protecting the information requested.

Research: We may disclose your PHI to researchers when their research has been approved by an institutional review board or privacy board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of your information.

Coroners, Medical Examiners and Funeral Directors: We may release your PHI to a coroner or medical examiner. This may be necessary, for example, to identify a deceased person or determine the cause of death. We may also disclose your PHI to funeral directors consistent with applicable law to enable them to carry out their duties.

Fundraising: We may contact you to provide you with information about our sponsored activities, including fundraising programs, as permitted by applicable law. If you do not wish to receive such information from us, you may opt out of receiving the communication(s).

Other Uses and Disclosures of PHI: Your authorization is required, with a few exceptions, for disclosure of psychotherapy notes, use or disclosure of PHI for marketing and for the sales of PHI. We will also obtain your written authorization before using or disclosing your PHI for purposes other than those provided for in this Notice (or as otherwise permitted or required by law). You may revoke an authorization in writing at any time. Upon receipt of the written revocation, we will stop using or disclosing your PHI, except to the extent that we have already taken action in reliance on the authorization.

Your Health Information Rights

Access: You have the right to look at or receive copies of your PHI, with limited exceptions. You must make the request in writing. You may obtain a form to request access by using the contact information listed at the end of this Notice. You may also request access by sending us a letter to the address at the end of this Notice.
